Synopsis

Music, magic, and a real-life miracle meld in this virtuosic, genre-defying tour de force from storytelling maestro Pam Munoz Ryan. Lost and alone in the forbidden Black Forest, Otto meets three mysterious sisters and suddenly finds himself entwined in a puzzling quest involving a prophecy, a promise, and a harmonica. Decades later, Friedrich in Germany, Mike in Pennsylvania, and Ivy in California each become interwoven when the very same harmonica lands in their lives, binding them by an invisible thread of destiny. All the children face daunting challenges: rescuing a father, protecting a brother, holding a family together. How their suspenseful solo stories converge in an orchestral crescendo will resound in your heart long after the last note has been struck. Richly imagined and structurally innovative, ECHO pushes the boundaries of form and shows us what is possible in how we tell stories.

Customer Reviews

A Wonderful and rich story. I am impressed with the way the author weaves the different stories and unites them at the end. This is a novel that should be listened to rather than read. Highly imaginative.

I want to share this audiobook with a lot of family and friends. The story is great and the musical accompaniment further explains the story.

I love this book and look forward to the audio tape especially with Corky Siegel playing! Can anyone tell me what is the CD running time?

Amazing! Complicated tapasstry of storys sewn together beautifully!

So happy with my purchase!
