Customer Reviews

First and foremost, the author comes across very genuine, real, down-to-earth. He shares three speeches in the beginning and I immediately saw what he was saying. I found myself smiling wide, knowing that this guy knew what he was talking about. And, I quickly realized he was warming the reader (me) up for the content to come. When you do that...people LISTEN. This system is unlike I've any I've ever heard of before. And, to be honest, it is not the first publication I have read about giving speeches. Right off the bat, Mr. Sedniev is covering little golden nuggets about being hungry and some clever insight about seating arrangements. I don't want to spoil anything, but the whole seating thing is GOLD. I don't want to give away too much...but this book reads more like a story than a "guidebook." Broken off into small, 'digestible' segments, each one have realistic examples, that you feel what is being said; the nuggets of information seared into your mind. Why? Mr. Sedniev cleverly uses the emotional triggers throughout the book so you feel, smell, hear and completely grasp the content. Why does that matter? Because it sticks in your memory and becomes comfortable, reliable information. Mr. Sedniev's BIGGEST secret is exactly what he uses to present this information. If you understand that, you will not only ENJOY reading this book, but look forward to the art of public speaking. It's not about reciting words off of index cards. In this book, you are taught everything from knowing who your audience should be, on to how to captivate and engage them with what you have to offer all the way to getting them to interact with you and ask questions. He covers the logistics of your speech and how to work each aspect together effectively.
